COUNTY FARM

The County Farm at Dover remains in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Young as Superintendent and Matron. The results of their administration have continued to be most successful and satisfactory as in the past. The number of people cared for during the year has been about the same as the average for the past few years. The buildings are all in good condition and the farm continues to produce large crops. We were obliged to install a new steam pump the past year, and also to place new tubes in some of the boilers. The cost of maintenance of the Farm for the past year shows a decrease of $2,023 92 from 1925. Also the income from the Farm shows a gain of $599.71 from that of 1925 making a net saving of $2,623.23 for 1926. There are some changes needed in the Jail; and the Commissioners desire to call the attention of the County Delegation to this matter when they meet at the Farm. Visitors are welcome at the Farm, and the selectmen of the various towns are especially invited to meet with the Commissioners upon any Tuesday, when they are in session and the buildings inspected. We wish to thank all the County Officers, and others for services rendered the Commissioners the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM J. HARTFORD,
MARK E. WILLEY,
ALFRED C. BRAINARD,
Commissioners of Strafford County.

Report of Lester C. Holmes, Chaplain

Dover, N. H.,
January 6, 1927.

TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF STRAFFORD COUNTY:

I beg to submit the following report, as Chaplain of the Strafford County Home and House of Correction, for the year ending December 31, 1926.

Religious services have been held the second Sunday of each month, with special musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental on the program. The attendance has been good and the spirit of cooperation is commendable.

The Baptist Christian Endeavor Society arranged an interesting program for Thanksgiving Sunday, at which time Ernest E. Kidder was the speaker and Miss Marion Palmer the soloist. Favors were distributed to each inmate. The Epworth League of the Methodist Church gave their annual Christmas program in December, which brought much cheer and pleasure to the large number in attendance. There was a Christmas tree upon which had been placed a gift for each member of the home. Much credit should be given to Mr. William Berge for making possible the serving of the refreshments at the conclusion of the program.

Owing to the generosity of the Moody Bible Colportage Asso., the visitor has been able to distribute large quantities of literature the past year, which has done much to brighten and enlighten unfortunate individuals. A number of personal calls have been made.

The work has been made a delight, through the splendid spirit of the Sup't, Edward Young and his wife, who have always been willing to cooperate for the happiness of those entrusted to their care.

Thanking you for the honor bestowed upon me, in electing me to this position of service, I am,

Yours sincerely,

LESTER C. HOLMES,

Chaplain.

Report of Solicitor

TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF STRAFFORD COUNTY:
Gentlemen:—

I hereby submit my report for the year ending December 31st, 1926.

The following is a list of the indictments returned by the Grand Jury at the February and September Terms of the Superior Court, all appeal cases and the disposition of the same.

There is also included in this report several cases which have been on the docket for several years. After taking these cases up with the Clerk of Court and giving them considerable thought, I have marked them "Nolle Prosequi" owing to the fact that the State has been unable to produce witnesses or the evidence was not considered strong enough to procure convictions.

State vs Joseph Fedrico was a case wherein bail had been forfeited; later on Fedrico was surrendered and a motion made to return the bail which the Court denied. Defendant took exceptions to Court ruling and the case was transferred to the Superior Court. At March Session the Court's finding was "Defendant's exceptions overruled."

State vs Albert Chesley. Illegally possessing liquor; plea guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $25.00 and costs; serve a term of 30 days at the House of Correction; House of Correction sentence suspended upon payment of fine and costs.

State vs David Larcorn. Larceny; plea, guilty. Sentenced to serve one year at House of Correction.

State vs Clyde W. Crowell. Breaking and entering in the night time with intent to steal; plea, guilty. Sentenced to one year at the House of Correction.

State vs Robert Blanchard. Illegal possession of intoxicating liquor; plea, guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 and costs, 30 days in County Jail suspended upon payment of fine and costs.

State vs Robert Blanchard. Sale of intoxicating liquor. "Nolle Prosequi on motion of Solicitor."

State vs Barnum. Larceny; plea, guilty. Sentenced to one year at House of Correction. Sentence suspended.

State vs Amede Laprice. Assault with intent to rob; plea, "Nolo Contendere". Sentenced to serve one year at House of Correction.

State vs Lester Bryant. Breaking and entering in the day time and committing larceny. Bryant was out of State's Prison on parole. I tried him for breaking his parole and he was committed to Concord State's Prison for a period of two years with understanding this indictment would be Nolle Prossed. Nolle Prosequi in accordance with agreement.

State vs Wilfred Soucey. Assault with a loaded revolver. "Nolle Prosequi on motion of Solicitor."

State vs Wilfred Soucey. Keeping for sale intoxicating liquor. "Nolle Prosequi on motion of Solicitor."

State vs Wilfred Soucey. Illegal possession of intoxicating liquor. "Nolle Prosequi on motion of Solicitor."

State vs Wilfred Soucey. Illegal transportaion of liquor. "Nolle Prosequi on motion of Solicitor."

The above four cases were marked Nolle Prosequi as a reward for valuable information and assistance furnished the State.
